[ON-SCREEN HEADLINE: House Approves Budget Slashes; $9 Billion to Public Broadcasting and Foreign Aid]

TONY DOKOUPIL: On Capitol Hill overnight, House Republicans approved $9 billion in budget cuts for foreign aid and – foreign aid and public broadcasting that the Senate okayed on Wednesday. President Trump demanded the cuts. They were originally identified by Elon Musk's DOGE task force. The House did not vote, we should mention, on a resolution attached to the budget package that calls on the Justice Department to release more information from the Epstein files.
