[ON-SCREEN HEADLINE: Breaking Overnight; Man Charged in Shooting Death of Loyola Freshman]

MICHAEL GEORGE: Well, breaking overnight charges have been filed against a Venezuelan migrant in the shooting death of a Loyola University freshman. Chicago police charged Jose Medina with murder and other charges in connection to Thursday's shooting. 18-year-old Sheridan Gorman was walking with friends near a pier when masked — when police say a masked gunman opened fire. The Department of Homeland Security says Medina has been living in the U.S.. illegally. He's due in court today for a detention hearing.
