

CBS Mornings

06/09/26

7:01:02 a.m. [TEASE]

7 seconds

HANNAH BATTAH [on ABC's Good Morning America: First Look, 06/09/26]: Reality TV star Spencer Pratt is no longer in the running for mayor of Los Angeles after the latest batch of ballots.

(...)

8:00:59 a.m. [TEASE]

26 seconds

[ON-SCREEN HEADLINE: Spencer Pratt Defeated in L.A. Mayoral Race]

GAYLE KING: We begin with this, though, a major shakeup in the race to be mayor of Los Angeles. Now it is down to two Democrats. Reality star Spencer Pratt, endorsed by President Trump, was running second for a long time, but fell to third place as the rest of the primary votes started coming in. City Counselor Nithya Raman, a democratic socialist, has surged ahead. She now will face Mayor Karen Bass. That race is set for November.