[ON-SCREEN HEADLINE: Tomorrow: Dr. Fauci to Testify on Origins of COVID-19]

KELLY O'GRADY: Well, Dr. Anthony Fauci is set to testify on Capitol Hill tomorrow about the origins of the coronavirus pandemic. Ahead of the hearing, Republican Senator Rand Paul released more than a thousand pages of journal entries from the nation's former top infectious disease expert. The Kentucky lawmaker is accusing Fauci of being dishonest with the public about how the pandemic started. Fauci has not responded to a request for comment from CBS News. Yesterday, Republican Senator Ron Johnson, who is on the committee that Fauci will testify before tomorrow, appeared on The Takeout. He told Major Garrett that Americans were deceived by Dr. Fauci.

GARRETT [on CBS News 24/7's The Takeout, 07/28/26]: Imagine I'm a constituent of yours, Senator Johnson, and I ask you this question. Shouldn't we be more concerned about China than Anthony Fauci? Don't they have blood on their hands? That is, as more apparent than Anthony Fauci or anyone who funded any gain-of-function research.

SENATOR RON JOHNSON (R-WI) [on CBS News 24/7's The Takeout, 07/28/26]: I'm not holding China harmless here. But again, it's Anthony Fauci that covered this, and if we don't hold these people accountable, they'll do it again. You can see them trying to do it with monkeypox or this hantavirus, whether it's another bird flu, whether it's Ebola, they create fear so that they can force these countermeasures on us. [SCREEN WIPE] This entire thing is a ruse, and it's a ruse that I think created a pandemic that ended up killing millions of people.

[ON-SCREEN HEADLINE: Tomorrow: Dr. Fauci to Testify on Origins of COVID-19]

MUGO ODIGWE: Dr. Anthony Fauci is set to testify on Capitol Hill tomorrow about the origins of the coronavirus pandemic. And ahead of this hearing, Republican Senator Rand Paul released more than a thousand pages of journal entries from the nation's former top infectious disease expert. The Kentucky lawmaker is accusing Fauci of being dishonest with the public about just how the pandemic started. Fauci has not responded to a request for comment from CBS News, but yesterday, Republican Senator Ron Johnson, who's on the committee that Fauci will testify before tomorrow, appeared on The Takeout. And he told Major Garrett that Americans were deceived by Dr. Fauci.
